

first Monday in May, by the qualified voters who have resided in said town for ninety days, under the rules and regulations now prescribed for the election of mayors and commissioners of incorporated towns by chapter one hundred and eleven of Battle's Revisal, entitled "Towns."

SEC. 3. That the mayor of the town shall discharge all the duties and exercise all the powers and authority which by said charter are conferred and enjoined upon the intendant of police, except where the same may be in conflict with the constitution of the state. Duties of mayor.

SEC. 4. That the mayor of the town shall be constituted an inferior court, and as such court, shall have jurisdiction and authority to hear, try and determine, within the corporate limits, all misdemeanors committed therein where the punishment fixed by law shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for thirty days, and shall also have within the same limits the judicial powers of a justice of the peace, to hear, try and determine all causes of action which may arise for the recovery of penalties incurred by violations of the ordinances of the town. Jurisdiction of mayor.

SEC. 5. That the mayor, when acting as a judicial officer, shall be allowed, and shall receive the same fees as are now allowed by law to justices of the peace. Fees.

SEC. 6. That the board of commissioners of said town may allow the mayor of the town an annual salary not exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars, to be paid out of the town treasury. Salary.

SEC. 7. That in all cases where a defendant shall be convicted before the mayor, of any misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced to pay a fine and costs, and such defendant shall refuse or shall be unable to pay the same, it may and shall be lawful for the mayor to order and require such defendant to work on the streets or other public work until, at a fair rate of wages, such person will have worked out the full amount of the fine and costs of the prosecution. May sentence prisoners to work on the streets.

SEC. 8. That said board of commissioners shall have Tax s.